600 DROWN IN FLOOD

Terrible Disaster in Japan Leaves Death
in Wake.

VICTORIA, B. C. Sept. 27.—Advices of a terrible disaster due to great floods prevailing in Japan have been received. The overflow of the river Otonishigawa, running through the town of Fukuchi, some near Kyoto, caused the loss of more than 600 lives, the river rising more than fifty feet.

The barracks of the Twentieth Regiment and Tenth Engineers Battalion situated on heights near the town, escaped damage when the town was overwhelmed and the trees were hurled out to render what assist we could be given to the survivors and to rescue a drowning people. The population of the town was over 12,000 people. Hurriedly fifty or more sailing junk were secured and dispatched to the scene, soldiers manning the junks and saving many persons. The police have recovered 600 bodies and others are believed to have been lost.

General Kuroki and Governor Mori of Kōtoku were in the city, the former being engaged in inspecting the troops and is said to have narrowly escaped.

LEAVES DIAMONDS ON A SHELF—THIEF GETS THEM

Bold Robber Makes Away With Woman's Jewels From a Photograph Gallery in This City.

A bold daylight robbery occurred this morning when a handbag containing diamonds was stolen from Mrs. M. A. Fowler of 1015 Central Avenue Alameda while she was having some work done in Bushnell's photograph gallery.

The police have absolutely no trace of the robber as no one was seen enter the place or leave it with a handbag such as described by Mrs. Fowler.

The diamonds were left on a shelf in the studio while Mrs. Fowler went into the back room with an attendant. When she returned the handbag was gone and no clue left by which the thief could be traced.

The police were notified and detectives have been assigned to the case without any tangible results so far. It is thought that someone entered the studio while Mrs. Fowler was out of it and seeing the bag on the shelf picked it up and made his escape.

TAYLOR MAY BE NOMINATED BY DEMOCRATIC DELEGATES

McNab Will Not Give Langdon the Nomination Unless He Is Forced to Make the Move.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—The nomination of P. J. McCarthy for Mayor by the Union Labor party has forced upon the Democrats the necessity of placing Edward R. Taylor as the lead of tickets unless every political indication is in the situation to suggest a change in the program before the convention meets next Wednesday. Mayor Taylor will be chosen to lead the Democrats into the campaign. The present emergency chief executive of San Francisco can thank his enemies not his friends for this unexpected political honor.

When Dr. Taylor receives the prize with its traditional accompaniment of spread eagle oratory he may content himself in the assurance that the Democrats have selected him not because they either like him or want him but because they believe that they must have him to win. It is argued and shrewdly so by the Democrats that the partisan folly of the Republicans in permitting Dan Ryan to head his own ticket has ripened the better elements in Ryan's party for revolt.

THE DEMOCRATS

The Democratic manipulators have simply been waiting in the hope that blunders like the Republicans and Laborites committed would be perpetrated. The hope realized that Democrats will now place in the field what they will be

BOODLER SWEARS SLEUTH PLEDGED HE SHOULD KEEP JOB AS SUPERVISOR

Rogers Proves Mamlock Falsifier on Stand—Boodlers
Continue Story of Their Shame—Testimony
Given by Mint Officials.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—That T. J. Ford had drawn from the United States mint $70,000 on the order of Patrick Cathoun was the testimony of D. J. Leach at this morning's session of the Ford trial before Judge Lawlor.

Documents drawn up by clerks and undeveloped were presented without sufficient identification for a police court. Rogers, however, permitted them to go in. As the trial progresses the air of confidence in the attorney representing Ford becomes more and more apparent.

Several documents drawn up by a bookkeeper, Hawkins of the mint, were admitted relative to the withdrawing of sums of money. These documents should have been properly made out by Cashier Cole who was then in that office.

DEFENSE RELATED
BY THE RESULT

Leach's testimony on the whole was far from complete and the defense was related. The director of the mint was the chief witness for the prosecution.

One of the sensations of the trial this morning was Henry's reputation of Burns as a member of the prosecution. Henry's scoring of Patrick M. McGushin, one of the hoodlums who failed to testify in the manner the prosecutor wished also created surprise and amusement.

Henry demanded in tenderest tones whether or not McGushin had ever been promised that he would be allowed to remain on the Board of Supervisors.

Well, Burns told me I could keep the beer selling ex-supervisor on the board.

I'm speaking of the prosecution, yelled Henry. Did either Mr. Henry or Mr. Tamm tell you you could remain on the board?

Well, indirectly.

Answer my question, shouted the prosecutor. Indirectly yes, still maintained the witness.

Henry also made him admit that he had begged for an immunity contract and had refused to testify before the grand jury until he had received it.

The examination of the witnesses proved unprofitable to the prosecution throughout the morning session. Not even the statement of ex-supervisor Sanderson, a schoolmate of Henry who first told of the boodling going on in the board was satisfactory. The reluctance evinced by the grafters to testify for the prosecution is becoming more and more noticeable and it is only by shaking the big stick over their heads and securing out information that the prosecutor can secure an answer.

The replies are usually ambiguous and without satisfaction.

Without an exception the hoodlums have testified that they would have voted for the trolley ordinance whether they received any money for it or not and as each reiteration of this has fallen upon the ears of the spectators the prosecutors have winced.

In the morning session the examination of Miss Mamlock was completed. Rogers strongly intimated that the hoodler had been well primed. Mamlock had a most convenient faculty of forgetting everything save that which the prosecution desired to bring out.

Sanderson followed Mamlock and McGushin came next. The morning session closed with Leach on the stand and undergoing his direct examination by Henry. The attendance was larger than formerly. The women are becoming an important part of the audience, their number almost equalling the number of sleuths that are present.

For the first time since the opening of the Ford bribery case Attorney Earl Rogers failed to appear when court was called to order. Miss Mamlock took the stand but Alexander C. King for the defense asked that court should suspend a few minutes until Rogers arrived. The two Moores were also absent as was Henry and Spreckels. After a few minutes delay Henry and Rudolph Spreckels

TOM GIBSON TO BE UNITED RAILROADS CHIEF DETECTIVE

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Detective Thomas Gibson for twenty years a prominent sleuth in the police department, will tender his resignation tomorrow in order that he may accept the position as chief of detectives of the United Railroads. Detective Gibson is one of the best detectives in the local department and has shown remarkably clever work in numerous cases, among which might be mentioned the Selby smelting robbery at Crockett, the Eppler grain fraud case, the George D. Collins bigamy case and the famous $20,000 robbery of the strong box of the steamer Alameda.

Sergeant Frank Norman who has for over eight years been clerk of the chief of police will also resign tomorrow and expects to be recalled for disability caused by an automobile accident at Sutter and Franklin streets several months ago.

pleased to call a non-partisan ticket. They are convinced that San Francisco is better prepared this year to accept non-partisanship than it ever was before in its history. The ordinary voter who has no more use for professional good government clubs than he has for place clubs, is in a mood to help get a decent administration.

Acting upon this mood the Democrats will put up a non-partisan ticket with a hope that it will be voted straight. McCarthy's move on Ryan has killed the fusion idea. It is settled that for every place on the ticket there will be three different nominees representing the three different parties. The only possible exception will be for the positions of police judges.

OTHER OFFICES.

McCarthy having nominated himself for Mayor the Union Labor party will now rest on its oars until several proposed conferences for fusion on other nominations have been held. The Laborites would like to fuse on coroner, treasurer, tax collector and city attorney, but nobody else wants to have anything to do with the proposition. No aspirant for these places has a personal following in the different conventions to force a fusion for himself so the idea has gone into the political scrap heap. Ryan having received one gold brick from McCarthy, is not eager to accept any more. He doesn't sympathize with McCarthy's contention that the brick was simply a touching tribute from the building trades. McNab will not, of course, fuse while the beautiful dream of a non-partisan ticket, erected on a pedestal of political mistakes hasn't been dissipated into the uncomfortable awakening after election.

McNAB AND LANGDON.

McNab, by the way, will not give Langdon the nomination for district attorney unless he is forced to do so. The graft prosecutor and the powerful private interests behind it are resorting to a campaign of intimidation upon prospective candidates that is having an effect. Lawyers who would stand a fair chance of election are being browbeaten out of the race and it looks that this process of elimination will leave the field clear for Langdon.

In the Union Labor ranks Frank McGowan still has the right of way for the nomination. Some misguided friend of Bob Ferrell suggested him as a good substitute for McGowan until a fellow with a good memory reminded the enthusiast that Ferrell and Jim Gallagher are related to each other. Ferrell has very naturally been retired from all consideration in the matter.

While the majority situation is necessarily erasing the major part of public attention at present there is a small tribe of civic purifiers deeply concerned in another political matter. This devoted band wants to serve the municipality as supervisors. Among the members who are sorely distressed to escape from a dilemma are the former Republicans on the existing Board of Supervisors. They have conscientious scruples against giving up their jobs next January and they are trying to determine which one of two nominations will be the best for them to take.

TO OFFER NOMINATIONS.

It is not unlikely that McNab will offer them nominations on the Democratic-Non-Partisan ticket on condition that they accept no other nomination, either from the Republicans or Laborites. Whether to accept or to reject this offer is a question far more puzzling than that of the rehabilitation of the burnt district. The irreverent are saying that it is cruel to put such high-minded protectors of the public weal to such a test, but the decision must be made within a very few days.

The defection of Tom Eagan from the Union Labor convention has simply contributed to the safety of the general situation. Eagan has done what he denounced Michael Casey for doing and he has not divided the Laborite forces. As a preliminary for success at the polls the Democrats knew they needed a fusion with the Union Labor party. Failing in that their next best move was to induce a division of interests in the union ranks. This has been done and the Democracy in consequence is in high gear.

CLERKS AND KNIGHTS GIVE MINSTREL SHOW

The Retail Clerks' Local, No. 1125 will have a good time this evening, reinforced by the Fruitvale Lodge, No. 56, K. of P. when these two great aggregations will appear in a grand minstrel performance at the Masonic Theater. The bill is complete and the participants say that a cure is guaranteed tonight for the blues or worryment and that the sick will be made well in a three hours' entertainment.

The committee in charge have worked like Trojans to make the occasion a memorable one. Those who are instrumental in bringing the entertainment to a successful issue are Homer Carter, Joe Samuels, Harry Rosner, J. Kettler and Col. Sanderson.

A thief who at some time in his career has been more or less of a savant, walked off with a fine bronze head of Dante from the home of R. E. Beck at 1387 Broadway about 11 o'clock this morning. The head stood on a mahogany table in the parlor and the thief, who was wearing a dark suit and a hat, was seen by several witnesses. The head is a very valuable and could be easily identified by a hole in the head. Value $200.

OSGOODS' OAKLAND DEPARTMENT DRUG STORES

Rate=Cutting Did It

"MAY! HOW YOU HAVE GROWN IN THIS SHORT TIME," REMARKED AN OLD PATRON OF OURS WHO HAD BEEN OUT OF THE CITY FOR A FEW YEARS. SHE PICTURED OSGOODS' TO HERSELF AS THE STORE SHE REMEMBERED ON BROADWAY, AND WAS AMAZED TO FIND SUCH ANOTHER STORE AS OUR TWELFTH AND WASHINGTON STREET ENTREPOI. THE PROGRESS OF OSGOODS' HAS BEEN REMARKABLE. BEGINNING IN A VERY MODERATE WAY, IT HAS NOW ASSUMED A COMMANDING POSITION IN THE RETAIL FIELD. THERE IS A REASON FOR THIS WONDERFUL GROWTH. YES, SEVERAL REASONS—SO MANY, IN FACT, THAT WE CANNOT BEGIN TO TELL OF THEM. PERHAPS THE MOST IMPORTANT ARE: "TREATMENT OF PATRONS," "VALUES" AND "RATE-CUTTING." THE GREAT CONSIDERATION ACCORDED PATRONS IN THE OSGOOD STORES IS OFTEN COMMENTED UPON BY THOUSANDS OF WOMEN, AND THE ECONOMY OPPORTUNITIES OFFERED MAKE THEM THE LOGICAL SUPPLY CENTER.

Smoke and Save

The Osgoods' Ciga ages are the only places in town where smokers can save money. And the people wonder how Osgoods' can do it. All the world's best cigars are found here at exactly 20 per cent less in price than they will be found in any other cigar store in town. There is nothing suggestive of fake about Osgoods' cigar methods. They don't give away pepper pots and baby rattles, and plated spoons in return for a lot of coupons which it is hoped you may not carry away from the store or that you will lose before redeeming them.

Osgoods' have none of this; they cut the price and give you the full change. Two 12-1-2c cigars at Osgoods' cost 20c, and your nickel is returned to you right then and there.

And the cigars have no suspicion attached to them—no fancy names calculated to mislead.

The cigars Osgoods' sell at 10c apiece are full size, highest quality, Optimos, Sanchez & Haya, Cincierads, Americans, Belmonts, Palancias, and other equally standard brands.

And if you want a mild regular 10c smoke, there's the Cedula, which can only be obtained at Osgoods' Cigarages for 5c straight.

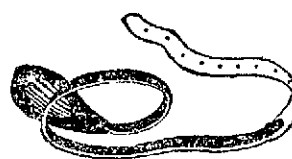

Cut=Rate Medicines

Our price-cutter has the keenest edge of any price-cutter on this coast. When people tell us that other stores have suffered from a temporary spasm and have issued a new list of cut rates, we immediately go just a little deeper and keep on leading in the selling just the same.

That's about all that is necessary to say. All Alameda county knows the rest.

SAYS HUSBAND IS INHUMAN

Claiming that her husband is not a fit man to undertake the duties of a father to her unborn child, Miss Jennie Miller, through her attorney, this morning presented a petition for divorce to Superior Judge Waste. Richard Burrows Bell, attorney for the defendant, William O. Miller, requested a continuance for one week in which time he hoped to effect a reconciliation between the husband and wife. Miller is said to be a successful carpenter, making $5 a day at his trade, and his wife further asks that she be given $50 a month for support. In her complaint Mrs. Miller alleges that her husband has been inhuman and excessively cruel ever since their marriage eighteen months ago. On several occasions, she says, Miller has thrown her from bed using vile language and reproaching himself for having married her. She has, she alleges, accused her of being a burglar and a thief, and suggested the advisability of getting out and buying a gun for herself. Mrs. Miller states that this condition is unbearable especially in view of the approaching birth of her son, whom she desires to protect from a father, who does not desire that he should live. Judge Waste continued the case for one week, at which time the attorneys for both sides will have their witnesses in court.

LANDLADY GOES TO COURT FOR ROOM RENT

V. F. Newell was sued in Judge Quinn's court this morning by Mrs. Rose McQueeney for room rent amounting to $20. Mrs. McQueeney claimed that Newell disturbed the neighbors by cursing and using vulgar language. She also alleged that he nailed the doors to the windows and damaged the furniture in her house. She asked the court to have him removed from the premises at once. Judgment was taken by default for Mrs. McQueeney.

HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI GIVE COTILLION

The alumni association of the Oakland Polytechnic high school ushered in the winter season of its Cotillion Club last night at Ebel hall with the most brilliant gathering of its history. The membership of the club was almost entirely present. Mr and Mrs. A. T. Boland led the grand march with fifty-nine couples behind them. The members of the grand march were heightened by the unusually beautiful gowns of the girls and the bright happy faces of all the folk who have waited for the opening of the season with so much anticipation.

The ball was a tremendous success, even when measured with the high standards which this cotillion has achieved through three seasons of successful dances. The beautiful movements of the fancy dances, one of the features of this club, brought forth rounds of applause and insistent demands for encores.

Owing to the allotted quota of membership having been given out already the list has been closed, and no more will be admitted for the entire season. The next dance will be on Thursday evening, October 24. The following arranged the affair: Golden Downing (manager), James H. Burke (president) and Mrs. W. L. Lorman (secretary).

ROBS HOME IN DAYLIGHT

After breaking in the backdoor with a heavy bar of iron, smashing the glass and unlocking an inside door, a thief looted the home of H. S. Gilbertson at 334 Thirty-fourth street yesterday afternoon and got away with jewelry and personal effects to the amount of $125. No one seems to have seen the crime committed although it seems almost impossible that the falling glass should not have been heard by some of the neighbors. The Gilbertsons were not at home and the robber had his own way, going from room to room and helping himself to whatever suited his fancy. A neighbor states that she saw a young fellow about 20 years of age go into the house early in the afternoon, but attached no importance to the matter, thinking that the Gilbertsons were probably at home. He wore a dark coat, was of dark complexion and had dark hair. A detective has been detailed on the case.

HARD AFTER POSTAL THIEF

Secret Service Men Searching for Clever Robber of Sub-Station Office.

United States Postoffice Inspector Maderos called on the Chief of Police this morning to gather the facts in the robbery of the postoffice sub-station in H. M. Jewell's pharmacy at 4425 San Pablo avenue, which was reported exclusively in THE TRIBUNE yesterday.

The penalty for robbing a postoffice is very heavy and the secret service men are hard at work on the case.

The haul, which netted the robber $230.50 of government money, is the third of a series of clever daylight robberies. It is believed that the same bold crook that robbed the till of S. Parker on Telegraph avenue of $50 Tuesday and who cleaned out the cash drawer at Roder & Jamison's on Park street, Alameda, Wednesday, was the same man who committed the crime yesterday. The descriptions in all three cases are the same in every detail and the methods of operation coincide perfectly.

Shortly after two o'clock yesterday the robber entered the pharmacy and asked for a bottle of linseed oil. The clerk went into the rear and returned with a small bottle of the oil. The stranger said that he did not want that brand and the clerk returned to the back room, leaving a sack containing over $230 belonging to the postoffice sub-station lying just inside the stamp window on the counter preparatory to being taken to the main postoffice.

The thief seized his opportunity and grabbing the sack ran out of the store and jumped on his wheel and sped away before the clerk, who missed the money as soon as he stepped into the room, had time to give an alarm.

ECCENTRIC MINER PLEADS OWN CASE

STOCKTON, Sept. 27.—Professor Giles Ours Pearce, and at one time a large landowner, created considerable amusement for the court loungers yesterday when he appeared to act as his own attorney in two cases for the recovery of alleged mining stock and damages to the amount of $300,000 from C. M. Weber. The papers he filed were such with an American flag, and were such a jumble of words without meaning that Judge Nutter could not make any sense out of them.

When the cases were called Pearce, who is very eccentric, appeared with a fair sized silk flag pinned on the lapel of his coat. Court proceedings being unknown to him, he wanted to immediately present several witnesses he had brought along.

After some argument, in which he delivered a lecture Attorney Neumiller moved for non-suit and was sustained. The same procedure followed in the second action, it taking only a little over an hour to hear both suits. Pearce became angered and shouted, "Appeal—I appeal to the Supreme Court." The mining company was formed months ago, but has not done anything along that line. Pearce is a bankrupt.

SWIMMING LESSONS FOR LOCAL SCHOOLS

ALAMEDA, Sept. 27.—That swimming lessons may become a part of the curriculum of the local school is the desire of many and during the past week the Alameda Board of Education has been endeavoring to interest the school authorities in his proposition. Yesterday the management of the Terrace Baths, learning of the efforts of the board, offered a number of lessons to the Board of Education which may be acted on at a meeting next week.

Manager Macaulay offered to allow the school the use of the baths free of charge for a number of hours certain days in the week. The baths have been recently purchased by a number of citizens well known in the west end and are being fitted up to accommodate large crowds. Whether the offer will be accepted is a matter of conjecture, but the efforts of Dr. Riehl may yet be rewarded, as he has been working at the proposition for a number of years and has interested a number of citizens who are working to have swimming added to the list of studies.

GERMANS PRESENT GOOD MODERN COMEDY

The Society for German Dramatic Art gave an excellent performance of "Adel und Burgertum" at the Macdonough last night and the presentation was well received. The leading female parts were taken by Mrs. Fritz Zetche and Miss Marie Weiss. Richard Schuberger alone as the old count and Max C. Weiss was particularly good as Dietrich von Vinck.

The authors of the comedy had no neglected to burlesque the rich American and Otto Reubens brought out the humor of the character to advantage. The other parts were taken by Richard Waring and Fritz Zetche, whose work was very satisfactory.

The society has in preparation several German plays which will be presented in the near future, among them being such well known works as "Alt Heidelberg" and "Die Weiss Etwas."

PLAN NEW ROAD FROM NAPA TO LAKEPORT

SANTA ROSA, Sept. 27.—The Napa and Lakeport Railway Company filed its articles of incorporation with the County Clerk here this afternoon. The road is to be constructed from Napa to Lakeport, a distance of ninety miles, with a bridge line from Monticello, fourteen miles. The capital stock is placed at $2,000,000, of which $110,000 has been actually subscribed.

The incorporators are E. C. Amodee of San Francisco, and A. J. Leland and W. F. Ansell of Alameda county. Amodee has subscribed for 1000 shares, at $100 per share. The new road will open up a new and important trade route, and will be a great benefit to the country. The road will be built in stages, and will be completed in three years.

FIGHT POLAR ICE IN LAUNCH

Men in Gasoline Boat Struggle Three Days for Lives in Floes.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Seattle, Wash., says Congressman William Sulzer, of New York, last night told of his experience while cruising for three days in a gasoline boat among the ice floes off the coast of Siberia, in danger of being crushed at almost any minute.

He says he and his three companions were driven to the edge of the ice, where they took a gas engine and a small group of white faced, breathless railroad men arrived at the latter end of the polar pack, they saw the way to clear water, he felt much better. "We crossed the Bearing Straits in a gasoline boat owned by two fur traders," said Sulzer, "and visited a number of Eskimo villages about East Cape. Aside from the two traders, a kind of mine, and an Eskimo guide named Sigussu, were in the boat. We had easy sailing, stopping at intervals to see the tribe villages until we reached Cape Berde. We anchored off a windward shore on September 1 and intended to spend the night, lying perhaps ten miles to seaward. That night the ice came in and for three days we had to fight our way out through the pack."

ARREST AUTOIST.

BERKELEY, Sept. 27.—Andrew J. Berke was arrested at 2:30 o'clock this morning for driving his automobile with only one lamp in front and none in the rear of his machine, as required by law. He was arrested on Shattuck avenue near Center street. He was released on $20 bail.

MOB CHASES TRAIN CREWS

Comrades of Greeks Killed in Wreck Demand Lives of Trainmen.

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 27.—Crazed at the sight of the blood of their comrades, the forty Greeks who escaped unharmed in the collision between Southern Pacific work and freight trains at Cable last night completely wrecked the freight train engine with rocks and clubs and then started in pursuit of the engine and freight crews of the train that brought death to their comrades.

An hour later, after a chase over the three miles of rugged mountain territory lying between Cable and Tehachapi, the small group of white faced, breathless railroad men arrived at the latter end of the polar pack, they saw the way to clear water, he felt much better. "We crossed the Bearing Straits in a gasoline boat owned by two fur traders," said Sulzer, "and visited a number of Eskimo villages about East Cape. Aside from the two traders, a kind of mine, and an Eskimo guide named Sigussu, were in the boat. We had easy sailing, stopping at intervals to see the tribe villages until we reached Cape Berde. We anchored off a windward shore on September 1 and intended to spend the night, lying perhaps ten miles to seaward. That night the ice came in and for three days we had to fight our way out through the pack."

MILES JURY DISAGREES

Three Stand to Acquit Man Alleged to Have Attacked Mrs. Welty.

The twelve jurors sitting in the case of Fred Miles, who is charged with a brutal assault upon Mrs. Catherine Welty at Livermore, this morning reported to Judge Wells that they were unable to agree upon a verdict and were accordingly discharged. The jury went out at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, spending the night at the Key Route Inn. Since the first half hour of their deliberations they have stood there for conviction against three for acquittal, the minority having held out staunchly against all argument brought by the other side.

As was predicted by THE TRIBUNE, the point upon which they hung was the ability of the prisoner to ride a bicycle, the machine having been seen by Mrs. Welty a few yards from where the assault occurred. Miles who is a stocky German of the laboring class, could not, they claimed, have used the machine without accident unless he was an adept. District Attorney Brown and Attorney Rawson agreed upon a continuance until Wednesday morning next, October 3, at 10 o'clock.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 27.—At the street fair being held in Palo Alto today and tomorrow, students of the University will furnish many of the features that are sure to make the festival a success. BURGLARS MAKE SHORT WORK OF DYNAMITING SAFE Door Burst Open and Vault Blown Up and Looted, All Within One Hour.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—During the short period between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning, burglars entered the store of Henry H. Hebel, 621 Sacramento street, and blew up the safe with dynamite, securing $125.

Police Officer W. St. Armand of the Morse Patrol, tried both the front and rear doors of the place at 1 o'clock, finding everything securely locked. When he made his next rounds an hour later he discovered that the front door had been opened by means of a jimmy and that the safe had been blown open.

St. Armand summoned Police Officer Skain and Allen and the three officers made a careful search of the immediate neighborhood, visiting all the saloons and questionable places, but did not succeed in finding any trace of the burglars.

Daniel Matie, living at 371 Fifth street, reported to the police at 1 o'clock this morning that some men were endeavoring to enter the premises of the Schloss Crocker company at 373 Fifth street, by raising a rear window.

Police Officers Tracey and Kruger were sent to the scene from the Southern station. The found the rear window open and evidence showing that some men had visited the place, but they were unable to tell if anything had been stolen.

GRAFT VERSUS CIVIC REFORM

Criminal Selfishness and Neglect of Public Duty Generate Corruption.

To the Editor of THE TRIBUNE:—Ever since property rights have received universal recognition, the term "honest" has been twisted to serve many purposes. In the segregation of the conscientiously honest from the dishonest, is the umpire to be chosen from those who dare not write their own biography, or is he to be the heir to tainted money, the creeping opportunity seeking hypocrite, the demagogue or the thrifless anarchistic nonentity? The world is full of criminals who have never been accused of crime in a court of justice. After he has his fill, the thief of yesterday preaches honesty and morality today and the blackmailer and libertine of today joins the reform leagues of tomorrow. The employer who withholds fair compensation from his employee is a grafter and so is the employer who would utilize organization for oppressing his employee. Commercial honor is made a subject of ridicule by those who defy moral and criminal law and cover their tracks by forcing themselves into the front ranks of religious, charitable and fraternal endeavor.

GRAFT BEGETS GRAFT.

Graft begets graft. To perpetuate his public career, a representative of the people must graft out of the government and distribute fat jobs among his constituents whether the scheme for which he has secured an appropriation possesses merit or not. By paying its legislators bi-annually during sixty days the wage of a head-carrier, the State sets a premium on graft and so does a city which expects supervisors to honestly and efficiently devote most of their time to municipal affairs for $100 a month. The aspiring official may in instances have a proper conception of his responsibility to the public and ardently escape criticism, but his methods are usually the most pernicious. By omission oftener than commission he does the bidding of a corrupt ringmaster, subordinating public interest to his prospective own. Some years ago municipal bonds were sold in San Francisco to the extent of several million dollars, and notwithstanding the people's mandate almost unanimously expressed at the polls, the circulation of this vast sum was as a matter of political expediency indefinitely postponed, causing an enormous loss of interest and stifling progress and prosperity. In anticipation of a turn of the political tide which since then has not materialized, the "honest" Board of Supervisors continued the even tenor of its way until from sheer disgust the people relegated those "honest" lawmakers to private life (McClure's Catholics, Jews and all) and elected grafters, who promptly reduced the gas rate from $1.25 to 85 cents, divorced the saloon from the grocery store and raised the liquor license to $500 a year, which constitutes only a part of their creditable legislation urgently needed for many years past.

ALWAYS WITH US.

While the existence of the municipal grafter is deplorable, nobody but idiots expect him to be ever eradicated, or that such is the purpose of the professional reformer, nor is the grafter an unmitigated evil existing conditions in large American cities, where everybody's business is nobody's business. The much boasted civic pride of the average man of wealth in San Francisco has led him to accept immunity from equitable taxation until Dr. Dodge was elected assessor. The municipal grafter is admittedly criminally progressive in his own interest, but he favors progress which is the antidote to stagnation always disastrously affecting the welfare of the masses.

The history of New York and other large cities in the United States verifies the truth of this assertion. And we are certain that municipal affairs are more honestly conducted under a so-called reform government, of which San Francisco has had many in the past under the beneficent guidance of political dictators, none of whom grew poorer while playing that nefarious game at the expense of their private vocations if they had any? What would have been the result if during their reign the late catastrophe had taken place? We can only form a vague idea from the notorious city hall steal, the presence of cobble stones, until Schmitz became Mayor, the exorbitant gas and water rates so long in vogue, the flourishing of the Royal Cafe until Schmitz ordered it closed, unlighted streets during six months in the year, stuffed pay rolls and many other similar pet policies of the reformers who after a long rest are once more training to assume power.

CRIMINAL SELFISHNESS.

At the bottom of all corruption is criminal selfishness. Self-government reflects the character of the governed. It is neither better nor worse. To say that this or that corporation is at fault, is evading the issue. No corporation can corrupt a city wherein a majority of the people possess true civic patriotism. The grafting politician has made a study of human character as chiefly displayed in the centers of population. Not only is the job chaser at his command, but men in every station of life as well if they can directly or indirectly profit from such servility, though it may cause ruin and desolation all around them, nor is this criminal selfishness confined to the political arena. During more than thirty years every chief of the San Francisco fire department

NEW MANAGER FOR ORPHEUM

George Ebey, Well Known Newspaper Writer, Will Take Charge of Oakland Business.

President M. Meyerfeld, Jr., of the Orpheum Circuit Company, has made a change in the management of the Oakland Orpheum, transferring George Ebey to the management of the play-house, in place of J. L. D. Frazier. An order to this effect has just been issued by Mr. Meyerfeld and an announcement of the change made to all concerned. Mr. Ebey was for a number of years associated with the Orpheum Company in the management of its theaters in the East and on this coast, and is known in this section as an experienced and capable newspaper man.

ment has suggested the utilization of suit water for protection against a conflagration of exceptional magnitude, which they all predicted. Mr. H. H. Hacht as fire commissioner strongly advocated the plan, but for political reasons he was overruled by the "rule or ruin" powers. The vote catching platitudes, "Citizenship Above Partisanship," should be substituted with "Patriotism Above Criminal Selfishness." I am not defending graft in politics or in business, but if I have correctly diagnosed graft and reform as practiced in San Francisco from time immemorial, which is preferable?

A Lesson in Veracity.

A glaring example of mendacious reporting was furnished by the San Francisco Call this morning. The opening sentence of the Call's report of yesterday's proceedings in the Ford trial reads as follows:

"Andrew M. Wilson, prince of boodlers, railroad commissioner by the grace of William F. Herrin and former member of the Board of Supervisors, furnished the sensation yesterday at the trial of Tiley L. Ford."

A little further down in the same column, the Call says Heney shouted at Wilson:

"Who gave you your nomination as railroad commissioner?"

"Ruef," answered Wilson.

"In conjunction with Herrin?" retorted Heney.

"No, s r. Herrin wanted Eddie Wolfe," replied Wilson.

"Why don't you resign?" thundered Heney.

"There is no reason why I should resign," was Wilson's answer.

The falsehood contained in the opening paragraph was immediately contradicted by the evidence printed below, yet the Call is so shameless in its efforts to misrepresent others that it takes no heed of its glaring contradictions. Right on top of Wilson's statement that Ruef, not Herrin, gave him his nomination, the Call says Wilson is Railroad Commissioner by virtue of William F. Herrin.

Every person familiar with the history of the political campaign last year knows that Herrin did not want Wilson to be nominated, and tried to prevent his being named by the Republican convention. He favored the nomination of State Senator Edward I. Wolfe, but Ruef controlled a majority of the delegates to the First District Railroad Convention and forced Wilson on the ticket.

Mr. Heney should have addressed his inquiry why Wilson did not resign to Langdon and Spreckels. These gentlemen could compel the immunity bathed boodling Supervisors to resign—why could he not compel Wilson to resign from the Railroad Commission?

Perhaps the answer is to be found in the statement of several of the boodlers that the graft prosecution had agreed to let them serve their terms out, but had subsequently broken faith by demanding their resignations. The inference is plain that they were to be continued in office in case Schmitz could not be ousted from the mayoralty. In all probability Wilson was allowed to hold his office because Governor Gillett has the appointment of his successor. Mr. Heney is now wroth because Wilson refused to testify as the prosecution wished, and hence desired to unload the recalcitrant witness on somebody else.

The moral of the situation is found in the old adage: "Lie down with dogs, get up with fleas." The prosecution has made its bed with the boodling Supervisors and must take the consequences.

The Argonaut says Abe Ruef is being coddled in luxurious private apartments instead of being sent to jail as Schmitz and Glass were, to protect him against the penalty of his crimes. True as far as it goes, but there is another motive behind the scandalous favoritism shown Ruef. He must be encouraged to testify strongly for the prosecution in the United Railroads cases.

Demise of Socrates Huff.

When a citizen of the sterling character of Socrates Huff dies, it is a positive loss to the community of which he has been an active and useful member. The memory of Mr. Huff should ever be kept green in Alameda county, for he was one of its earlier pioneers and through the greater part of his life devoted his time and energies to develop its resources and build it up.

In all his relations with his fellowmen Socrates Huff commanded the utmost confidence and the highest respect. He was a good citizen in the fullest sense of the phrase. His life, private and public, was irreproachable. As a public officer, he served Alameda county long and faithfully, guarding with the greatest fidelity the important trust confided to his care by his fellow-citizens. In business he was a model of honesty and square dealing. His word, once given, was as good as a bond. The association of his name with any business institution was, in fact, a guarantee of its stability. The bank which he founded at San Leandro in the later years of his life and over which he presided until the time of his death he made one of the soundest financial institutions in the county. A multitude of his old-time friends and acquaintances genuinely mourn the passing of so good a citizen as Socrates Huff, although he had long outlived the "three-score years and ten" allotted to man, and join in their sympathies for the afflicted family.

Tom Eagan's charge that the Union Labor party is under the domination of Patrick Calhoun deserves to rank with Isadore Jacobs' lurid yarn that Calhoun conspired with Schmitz, McCarthy and other labor leaders to bring on the carmen's strike. It has been said that cars should have good memories. They should also be consistent enough not to make themselves ridiculous.

Outside Advocacy of Annexation.

The consolidation movement for the Greater Oakland will not down. The impulse in its favor is now coming from the outside. The Allendale people have taken up the subject enthusiastically, and they have organized a club to be known as Suburban Annexation Club No. 1, whose object is to foster public sentiment in favor of annexation to Oakland of all of the territory lying between the eastern limit of the city and San Leandro creek, the western boundary of the county and the Contra Costa county boundary line. Piedmont is to be included also in the proposition. The inducements for such a course were intelligently and comprehensively set forth by one of Allendale's progressive citizens, as follows: "It is unanimously agreed that a great city lies before our eyes and that our sleepiness and petty jealousies must cease, so that we may secure permanent sanitation, light, fire and police protection, the opening and extending of streets, the establishment of a uniform and effective government and the acquisition of other things vitally essential to the progress and development of a large population."

It is for the purposes thus concisely formulated that the annexation project to consolidate a so-called Greater Oakland have been hitherto advocated from within the municipality. But the suspicion has hitherto taken possession of some outside residents, whose high intelligence would naturally suggest that they were free from narrow local bias and petty prejudices, that the consolidation movement has been inspired solely by Oakland's most progressive citizens for selfish ends and in order to dominate politically the territory to be annexed.

Nothing could be farther from the truth, for the fact ought to commend itself to the most obtuse intellect that the results of consolidation, whatever they may be, must become equally distributed whenever consolidation takes place; that the territory annexed becomes an integral part of a great city whose citizens must share alike thereafter in its privileges as well as in its burdens, and that a citizen of Berkeley, Alameda or any of the outside suburban settlements to be included in the territory to be finally incorporated in the consolidated city will have an equal interest in the political control of its affairs.

The Railroads—I guess there's nothing to do but to take it. The doctor says it's for the good of my system—but it's the bitterest pill I've had to swallow yet—International Syndicate.

THE TRIBUNE is glad to see that this broadminded view of the projected consolidation has taken hold in the suburbs. It is the sentiment that must ultimately prevail, for it must be remembered that every foot of territory so far annexed to Oakland has enjoyed all of the benefits of municipal life since its annexation at an actually increased cost to the residents of Oakland as it was originally formed.

It is an indisputable fact that no section of the present boundaries of Oakland, outside of the old charter line would under any circumstances sever the present relationship. That ought to be an argument strong enough to put a quietus forever to the opposition of all anti-consolidationists.

The Allendale people have a correct idea of the situation. They have discovered that their true interests are inalienably associated with the fortunes of Oakland proper, and that the maintenance of a separate suburban existence is both unnatural and unprofitable; that it is, moreover, the manifest destiny of all of the communities lying north of San Leandro creek to unite under one government, by abolishing all of the artificial lines now defining the several petty communities possessing a makeshift of self-control, through which only inferior results are obtainable, while sanitary and other interests in common are incapable of being harmonized. It is a gratifying sign of the times that the movement in favor of consolidation has, at last, reached a point where its strongest support is coming from the outside of Oakland and not from within it.

The brawling and indecent Bulletin, which was rejoicing a few days ago because an attempt had been made to intimidate THE TRIBUNE with a libel suit brought in bad faith on flimsy grounds, is now cowering and apologizing for printing, at the instigation of Gumshoe Burns, a filthy libel on Luther Brown, who was charged with racing about San Francisco with lewd women in a red automobile trying to kidnap that fair-haired innocent Tom Loneragan. The kidnapping story was a rank fake, and Mr. Brown was at home with his family in San Leandro at the time the Bulletin represented to be dodging around among dives and roadhouses. Now the Bulletin is trying to beg off from the chastisement it has invited by printing a villanous libel on Mr. Brown in an infamous effort to make capital for the prosecution in the Ford trial.

The negotiations for peace between the rebel tribesmen of Morocco and General Drude, the commander of the French forces, have fallen through and the latter has given notice of a renewal of hostilities. The incident will probably serve as a valid excuse for an invasion of the disordered country in the interest of civilization and humanity in common, against which even Germany, which has hitherto been the chief obstructionist to France's plans, will be unable to enter a protest.

Daniel A. Ryan has received a certificate of character. He has been denounced by the Bulletin. Mr. Ryan was subject to grave suspicion as long as the Bulletin praised him.

She Made Illicit Whiskey 17 Years But Has Reformed

LONDON, Ky., Sept. 27.—Through President Roosevelt's clemency, Mrs. Adeline Rose, one of the most notorious moonshiners in the mountains of southeastern Kentucky, was released last Tuesday from prison and a fine of $1,000. She will return to her home in the mountains of Jackson county, where for over seventeen years, according to her own story, she had been actively and successfully engaged with a thoroughly organized gang of moonshiners in making and selling whiskey, in open violation of the laws of the county, state and United States.

The story of these seventeen years embraces not only the exciting experience common in the life of illicit distillers in the wild region of the Cumberland mountains, eluding the revenue officers, smuggling the product of the still to market, and maintaining an organization of accomplices and acquaintances sufficient to defeat cases tried in the federal courts, but the killing of Mrs. Rose's husband by her brother-in-law, one of the leaders in one of Kentucky's famous feuds, the final betrayal of an accomplice, who is now in prison for killing his sweetheart, a jealousy case in which an abandoned wife jumped from a cliff into a river, was rescued, and is now a maniac, and finally, the granting of a pardon by the President of the United States to Mrs. Rose, who is now but thirty-five years old and the mother of eight children. Last May 15 Mrs. Rose was convicted in the federal court here on a charge of making and selling moonshine whiskey, sentenced to six months in jail and assessed a fine of $1,000. Recently, through the efforts of former Congressman George M. Davidson, assistant district attorney of the eastern district of Kentucky, a petition was carried to President Roosevelt asking for pardon for Mrs. Rose on the ground that her family of children, the eldest seventeen years old, is without means of support and is scattered among relatives and neighbors, who are poorly prepared to care for them. After considering the petition, the President commuted the sentence and wiped out the fine. When visited at the home, Mrs. Rose was found in the basement kitchen. On being told the object of the reporter's visit, she smiled, wiped the perspiration from her face with her apron and said, as she seated herself: "Well, I've been treated all right here, but I'll be mighty glad to get back home. I have been a moonshiner a long time, but the President has pardoned me, and I am going to cut it out from this time on."

"To Refrain From Kissing a Pair of Pretty Lips While a Pair of Roguish Eyes Are Flashing a Challenge Into His Eyes Is a Feat Well Nigh Impossible to a Man of Proper Instincts and Good Breeding"

GRANITE CITY, Ill., Sept. 27.—An Alton druggist, E. A. Seck, is to be sued by Miss Stella McLain, of this city, for taking four kisses from her protesting lips. When Justice Thomas Kinder was told of her intention to enter suit he said:

"No blame whatever should be attached to any man for wanting to kiss as pretty a girl as Stella McLain, the complainant in the case. I am myself a Southern gentleman, born in South Carolina. It has always been a weakness of mine to admire pretty women. This young lady has as pretty a pair of eyes as I have ever seen, and I'm seventy-three years old and have seen quite a few women in my day and have admired them. I really couldn't blame Mr. Seck for wanting to kiss as fair and attractive a member of the feminine sex as is this young woman.

"To refrain from kissing a pair of pretty lips while a pair of roguish eyes are flashing a challenge into his eyes is a feat well-nigh impossible to a man of proper instincts and good breeding."

Justice Kinder is one of the oldest justices in Madison county. He is a married man and has one son, and while he has paid this tribute to the beauty of Miss McLain she declares she is not afraid to have her case tried before him.

"I have confided in the judgment of Justice Kinder," said Miss McLain, when his praise was repeated to her, "and do not object to having anyone kiss me and shall continue to object, strenuously, Druggist Seck, indeed! He shall pay for his boldness."

Miss McLain declares the Alton druggist came into Dr. Porter's office, where she is office girl, when there was no one about, caught her in his arms and hugged and kissed her four times, despite her objections. She finally told him she would call the police, which, she says, put an end to his emotional temerity and he pleaded with her to tell no one what had happened.

Seck is a married man, with a prosperous business in Alton. He says he can prove an alibi in the case.

SWEET INFLUENCE SHOULD FOLLOW WOMAN EVEN IN BUSY WORLD OF BUSINESS

Will in Time Become Masculine if Not Careful to Guard Against It.

The very desirable position filled by girls at the present time there are at least half a dozen waiting to fill the first vacancy, consequently it must keep down their salary unless an occasional expert will demand more than the average. But the girl or woman who has the ability and is willing to take up the responsible end of the business and is obliged to meet all sorts and classes of individuals, has by far the hardest position. From the fact that she certainly is meeting men of all sorts of temperament and must meet them on a thorough business basis, she will in time grow more into masculine manners and speech, until the sweet, womanly ways are entirely blotted out. In this she makes a great mistake. A woman always and in all positions should make her firm but gentle and sweet influence felt. And never does it lessen her chances to become man's equal in business and in many other lines of endeavor. As artists, singers, writers, and in some other ways woman has surpassed men. In perseverance, tact, and detail work she is his superior. She shows her tact and influence when she has a large business deal at stake, and is able to persuade perhaps the coverest business men to act as she does. In this she must use all her womanly genius and tact. She must not assume manly ways, neither as she the advantage of her tender and pretty face, dress, or brilliantly lighted drawing room, and a fairly like gown with all the smiles and coquetry used to win men in other than business ways. But here she must meet man as an equal, here she must meet man as an equal, with her business, but always can be given a smart touch with the great variety of collars and cuffs on sale nowadays. Gave His Wife And a Lot to Boot in Trade

For a Trip to Europe

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Sept. 27.—One of the most unique proceedings ever recorded in Fayette county is a wife trade, which has just come to light. By the terms of which one man was to give his wife, a lot to boot and a trip to Europe in exchange for the wife of the other party to the deal. But one wife refused to be traded and the transaction failed to carry through.

George Mettlo, a boarding house boss at Martin, and Mike Paul, his star boarder, closed a deal, it is alleged, for the exchange of their wives. Paul's wife was in the old country, but Mettlo knew her before he came to America. The transaction was reduced to writing, the terms of which are said to have been that, besides his wife in the old country, Paul should give a lot at Martin, and also pay the fare of Mettlo to the old country to get his new wife.

The wife here is said to have sanctioned the trade. Mettlo turned her over to Paul and left for his native land, where Paula's wife was obdurate and Mettlo was obliged to return without her. He has just arrived here, and after regarding the return of his own wife, and giving back the deed of the lot, the entire deal was called off.

Cupid Didn't See The Polecat, but--

WINNEPESKA, Ind., Sept. 27.—Agreeing with the assertion of young Jarvis Scherer who said "It's a nice night for a drive," Miss Minnie Landsead, his best girl, started out in a buggy with him, but when about a mile or two from town they ran over a polecat. They didn't see him or hear him, but they had reason to know of his presence.

Without stopping to extend first aid to the injured, Scherer whipped up his horse and made a dash for home. Although the polecat was left behind its odor was on the horse's buggy.

Whether or not the occupants of the buggy were forced to bury their clothes is not known, but it is a fact that in order to attend the old settlers' meeting at Goldsmith the young man had to abandon the use of his new buggy and borrow one of J. W. Croyle, and in order that he might use the horse he bought a large supply of cologne water and bathed the animal thoroughly with it in an attempt to get rid of the odor. Just how well he succeeded in this effort is not known, but at any rate the young man was not to be outdone by the little animal, and with the borrowed buggy and performed "hoss" he and his girl went to the old settlers' meeting.

SKELETON IN FULL DRESS SITS BY BRIDE-TO-BE AS SHE ENTERTAINS GUESTS AND DUBS UNCANNY AFFAIR AS GROOM

POND DU LAC, Wis., Sept. 27.—Sitting next to the form of a skeleton surmounted by a skull, Miss Stella Simmons entertained a company of her friends at a dinner "show" here. The reception was a culmination of a series of "show-ers" in honor of several Pond du Lac belles who have been married during the last six weeks. Miss Simmons attended all of them, and when she assumed Mrs. C. A. Galloway, the young woman announced that she would receive all of the guests and there would be a "bridegroom" there too.

When the guests arrived at the Simmons home they were entertained as they had been at other similar functions. Whispers were passed from one to an-

Poor Women Work for But 75 Cents a Week

The select committee of the British House of Commons, in taking testimony recently in regard to the control and regulation of the conditions under which home work is carried on, heard the evidence of the president of the Women's Trade Union League. She said that the difficulties in organizing home workers was due to the fact that they were too poor to help themselves. This witness mentioned the case of a woman known to her who could only earn seventy-five cents a week by shirtmaking. She mentioned the case of another shirtmaker who received only thirty-one cents a dozen for making shirts. The witness produced blue cotton shirts which were made for thirteen and a half cents a dozen. She said that without charitable subsidies or poor law relief the persons who accepted these low wages could not exist.

WOMEN'S ROWS HINDER 'SUFFRAGETTE' MOVEMENT

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The Suffragette party has split in half. Mrs. Pankhurst, who with her daughter Christabel, has been prominent in all recent anti-masculine demonstrations, established herself as dictator of the movement. She set aside the constitution and announced that she would have no one on the executive committee who did not entirely agree with her. Thereupon she began issuing instructions entirely of her own initiative.

The number of protesters did not suit a large number of other Suffragettes, so they withdrew and started a rival organization headed by Mrs. Despard, sister of General French, the brilliant cavalry leader of the British army. Mrs. Pankhurst remains in control of the funds and snaps her fingers at Mrs. Despard. The movement, it is said, was progressing favorably, has received a serious blow through the dissensions, showing how easily women in politics resemble men.

BIG HAWK ATTACKS GIRL WHEN DRIVEN FROM PREY

BOSTON, Sept. 27.—A large hen hawk, weighing nearly fourteen pounds, attacked Miss Ellen M. Shields, eighteen, of 215 Churchill lane, Milton, Monday afternoon, while the young woman, accompanied by some friends, was spending the afternoon at the Blue Hills reservation.

The party had just had their luncheon and were feeding some pigeons when the hawk swooped down and started to carry off one of the pigeons in its talons.

Contentment.

Fortune turns her back upon me—
Not a whit care I!
Fame is still a stranger to me—
Not the loser I!
With you, dear heart, beside me
Singing,
Bells of hope and cheer all ringing,
And your dear arms around me
Clinging,
Who'd exchange? Not I!
—David Seid.

Miss Shields quickly picked up a stone, and throwing it at the bird made it drop its prey. The hawk then attacked the girl and nestling on one of her shoulders, knocking her off the bird with her hands. Miss Shields picked up one of the tonic bottles, which her party had been using, and hitting the hawk a hard blow on its head, killed it. Except for a few scratches the young woman was not injured.

Actress Uses Motor Car as Tonic.

BOSTON, Sept. 27.—Eleanor Robson, the actress, tells the motor car a necessary to professional life. Commentaries often claim that this modern device saves railroad fare, but Miss Robson regards the auto purely from a hygienic point of view. She says: "There is no tonic like the open air for the woman who works, and I have found that a swift movement is infinitely superior to remaining in one spot. As you may have guessed, this is preliminary to the statement that for brushing away cobwebs in the brain there is nothing in this world like a motor car."

"My own waking hours are so fully taken up this season, both with rehearsals and performances, that my time for the care of my physical self is limited to its smallest quantity; therefore, I am forced to make a pleasure of necessity to a great extent, and thus the motor car comes into play and lends its twentieth century activity to my uses."

"Roughly speaking, for the actress who is busy, the motor car is a prime necessity, for it gives one the maximum of time, and by the very force of its rapid progress drives the fresh air into one's system. I am afraid few women realize one need for physical as well as mental exertion, and they are too inclined to believe themselves exhausted and incapable of further effort when they have accomplished a certain amount of work in the theater. To me this seems altogether wrong, for unless one has a healthy body one cannot have a healthy mind. A healthy brain, and without this how can one do good work in the theater, or, for that matter, elsewhere?"

Duchess of Marlborough On Her Way Home

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—It is understood that Consuelo, Duchess of Marlborough, has informed her friends in New York that she will sail for this country from England on October 16, for a long visit with her mother, Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont. She did not say whether she would bring with her her two sons, the Marquis of Blandford and Lord Iver Churchill, but it is thought only the younger will come. Under the terms of her separation from the Duke she has the exclusive charge of them. The Duchess last visited America in 1905 when she paid a brief visit to her mother at Newport and Hammersmith, L. I.

A Love Duel.

A fan, a rose, a handkerchief—
What weapons for a duel!
It seems almost beyond belief
That you could be so cruel.
Unarmed I come! I didn't bring
A solitary second.
Give me a rose, or anything—
Reckless I shall be reckoned.
Your roguish eyes will do for light;
For signals, give me kisses;
So, when you're ready, all is right,
It matters not who misses.
How many duels you have fought,
And nothing yet has hurt you!
Beware! Love comes, sometimes,
Unthought.
Kiss me, you little flirt, you!
—Felix Carmen.

Pays Tribute to Celtic Mind

LONDON, Sept. 27.—George Meredith, whose literary activities are few nowadays, has written a remarkable preface to a collection of poems by Dora Bigerson. Some fine ballads of Miss Bigerson have excited Mr. Meredith's admiration, and in the preface he has dealt delightfully with ballad poetry and the Celtic mind.

SOCIETY: GOSSIP ABOUT SMART SET

Mrs. S. J. Taylor and Miss Margaret Taylor received this afternoon at a tea given at their home in Linda Vista in honor of Mrs. D. W. Eberts and Mrs. H. W. Wasson.

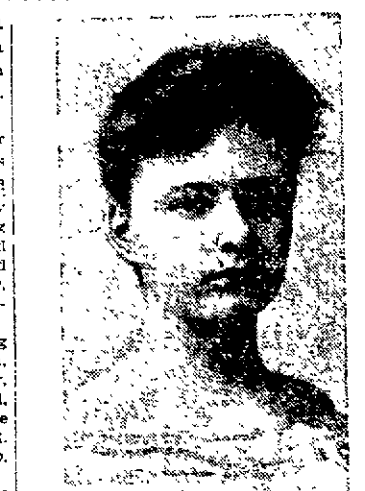

The house was elaborately decorated for the afternoon with pink blossoms and greens adorning the large reception rooms and hall. The dining room was done wholly in yellow, some beautiful effects being achieved in the use of the golden hue autumn blossoms. About two hundred cards had been sent out for the affair, and the large rooms were thronged during the hour of the afternoon.

Mrs. Taylor was assisted in receiving by Mrs. E. M. Walsh, Mrs. E. A. Heron, Mrs. J. F. Wagon, Mrs. B. F. Hubbard, Mrs. Edward von Adelung, Mrs. George de Golia, Mrs. A. F. Coffin, Mrs. A. M. Crim, Mrs. John Gilchrist and Mrs. D. L. Rose.

A group of the younger girls joined with Miss Margaret Taylor in caring for the guests. They were Miss Marian Walsh, Miss Clarisse Lobbs, Miss Von Loben Sels, the Misses Morrow, Miss Davis, Miss Drinkwater, Miss Isabel Percy, Miss Florence Gardner and Miss Lulu McKibbin.

The guest list covered many notable names in the local set, and the tea was a distinctly smart affair.

BOWLING PARTY.
Mrs. James G. Eddy entertained a party in the bowling alley at the Claremont Country Club this afternoon. A number of pretty maids and matrons were Mrs. Eddy's guests, among them Mrs. B. E. Bousfield, Miss Englehardt, Miss Bessie Palmer, Mrs. H. M. Wright, Mrs. Fred Winter, Mrs. Edward H. Geary, Mrs. Fred Dinger, Mrs. Edwin Eddy of San Francisco, Mrs. Cuyler Lee of San Francisco and Mrs. W. H. La Boiteaux. A very jolly hour was enjoyed, and several light refreshments were served. Bowling parties at the club are coming into strong favor. Mrs. George Greenwood was to have given one this week, but postponed it because of a pressure of other social claims.

HOME FROM EUROPE.

Mrs. E. L. G. Steele and her daughter, Miss Myrtle, are again at home in California, after having spent two years in Europe, traveling about at their leisure.

Love for This Oriental Maid Led Youth

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Love for a Japanese woman of rank, whom he could never hope to marry, is said to have been the cause of H. Isaac Scull, a young buyer of Oriental goods, ending his life by drinking cyanide of potassium as he stood before a picture of the girl in his room in the Park Avenue Hotel. So quickly did the powerful drug do its work that he dropped back instantly. The back of his head struck a china cupboard with such force that it was smashed to pieces, the fragments flying in every direction. One jagged scrap cut his scalp badly. The body was found by a chambermaid lying in front of Scull's trunk. Search of the room revealed the bottle which had contained the poison and a photograph of a pretty Japanese girl which was in the tray of the trunk. There was no letter. Papers in his desk showed that his home was in Bula, Va. Scull is known to have been in love with some girl abroad and his friends say that she is a Japanese who belongs to a noble family of Old Nippon and that religious and racial differences formed a bar between the couple. Scull is said to have been despondent and moody lately. He was an expert fudge of Oriental goods and for some time had been employed as a buyer by Vantine, the importer of Chinese and Japanese wares at Broadway and Eighteenth street. He made frequent trips to the East, where a few months ago he met the Japanese girl on whose account he is supposed to have killed himself.

TO KILL HIMSELF WITH POISON

Sweetheart Marries Another, Sends Substitute in Her Place, but She Balked

BOSTON, Sept. 27.—Henry Smith, living in North Woburn, when he was perhaps Annie's sweetheart, he came here, saved his money and sent a ticket abroad to the girl of his heart, Dorothy Marger. Dorothy received the ticket, but in the meantime she had been married, so she gave the ticket to Annie Janssen, another belle of Dorothy's country, to come to America and see Henry. Accordingly Annie was forced to declare she was Dorothy.

Smith came to meet her, all afire with the anticipation of once again greeting the sweetheart of his youth. He was rather indignant when he found that she was meeting another, and that the false-less Dorothy was already wed. After mature deliberation he began to feel that perhaps Annie would do after all, but then she refused him point blank. Smith went home and other North Woburn people who knew Annie attempted to get her out, but the immigration commission refused to work on the case. Meanwhile some South Boston friends found a husband for her and got Smith to sign a paper resigning his rights, but when Smith "woke up" he procured an attorney who broke up that game.

The final outcome was that Annie was allowed to go to North Woburn to live with her "friends and to wed as she likes. "I felt sorry for the old man and used to listen to him. After a time I began to like his style of talk. And when he asked me to marry him I could see nothing before me but his talk of a golden future. It was a beautiful picture he painted. But what a horrible frame that picture got. In less than three days from the proposal we were married in Chicago by a justice of the peace. "I made a mistake and I've found out that it doesn't pay for a young girl to marry an old man, and I wouldn't marry one again if he had a million. Next week Pauline, never again."

The Hon. J. C. Huffman, and his daughter, Miss Lydia Huffman, are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Williams of Orchard street. They arrived only a few days ago, and will probably spend several weeks in California. Mr. Huffman is Mrs. Williams' brother.

NEVADA GUEST.

The P. A. Wagners of Arch street, Berkeley, are entertaining an interesting guest. She is Mrs. Remhold Sadler, widow of the late governor of Nevada.

IN SONOMA.

Miss Nellie McGuff of East Oakland is having a pleasant vacation in Sonoma county. She will be away for three or four weeks.

TO RETURN HOME.

Mrs. Hopps, who has been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frederick Tieckmann, for several weeks, is to leave on Saturday for her home in Savannah, Ga. A number of pleasant affairs have been given in honor of the charming Southern visitor, and yesterday Mrs. Tieckmann entertained for her, inviting a number of friends whom Mrs. Hopps has met during her sojourn here. The afternoon was quite informal but none the less delightful to guest of honor and visitors alike.

SAN FRANCISCO WEDDING.

Today at noon Mrs. Florence Stone Farragut and Alexander Fraser Douglas were quietly married at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. L. L. Baker, in the presence of a small company of relatives and close friends. The Rev. William Clark Guthrie read the marriage service.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of champagne colored crepe de chine over pale blue; a large hat of pale blue, and a bouquet of orchids made the costume a most effective one.

The wedding is one in which many Oakland people are interested, as the principals have taken a very active part in the social life on both sides of the bay. They are to reside in San Francisco.

HALL-DODGE.

The engagement of Miss Elsie Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hall, to Nathaniel Dodge of Alameda was an interesting announcement made on Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride-to-be. The announcement was something of a surprise, as Miss Hall is a very young girl, but Mr. Dodge is a splendid chap and has made a complete conquest of the bride's family. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Dodge, of Central avenue, Alameda.

No date is mentioned for the wedding, but it will probably not occur until spring, certainly not until after the return of Miss Marian Hall, sister of the bride-to-be, who is at present traveling with friends in China and Japan.

IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tarpey (Hope Mayne Vickers), are enjoying their honeymoon in leisurely travel through British Columbia. Their wedding early in September was one of the season's interesting events, and at that time they planned to go to the Hawaiian Islands with Clarence Reed and his bride (Estelle Tewe), whose wedding is a coming event of much interest. The plans have been modified, however, and instead of taking the island trip, the Tarpeys will go to their country place near Fresno, where they will probably remain throughout the winter.

HOME TO HONOLULU.

Mrs. Marston Campbell, who has been a much visiting visitor in Oakland for several weeks, sailed yesterday for her home in Honolulu. She has been visiting with her sisters, Mrs. Roach and Mrs. Gassaway, and with other friends, for Mrs. Campbell was an Oakland girl with a wide acquaintance here. Her husband is a son of the late Frederick M. Campbell, who did so much for the development of Oakland's school department. The Marston Campbells have lived in Honolulu for several years.

AFTERNOON MUSICALS.

Mrs. Charles Warfield has invited a few friends for an informal half hour of music on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock to hear the Misses Elsie Jones and Marie Spect in the following program:

RECEPTION TO PASTOR.

A reception to the Rev. Leon L. Looft-bourrow of the Eighth Avenue M. E. Church has been arranged by the members of his congregation for this evening. The affair is in the nature of a congratulatory gathering for the congregation is much delighted that the bishop has again appointed the Rev. Looftbourrow to the East Oakland Church. He has had the church now for two years and has made himself much beloved among the congregation.

FIVE HUNDRED.

Mrs. Henry Rosenfeld had twenty of the girls in the younger set at a card party in the Claremont Country Club house today. Five hundred was the game of the afternoon. The guests were all close friends of the hostess, most of them members of a little circle which meets informally for a card game every week or so. Yesterday's game was also informal in character, the only difference being that it was given in the Country Club instead of being as usual a home affair.

INFORMAL AFTERNOON.

Miss Katherine Brown entertained on Wednesday at her home on Lee street, having bidden a number of girls in for a game of bridge. Following the game a dainty collation was served.

The girls who played were Miss Ruth Houghton, Miss Ruth Kales, Miss Ruth Casey, Miss Sevilla Hayden, Miss Lily Reid and Miss Josephine Johnson.

AFTERNOON AFFAIR.

Mrs. John J. Valentine is to entertain on Friday at her beautiful East Oakland home in compliment to Mrs. Ira Boss, who was Miss Ransome, sister of Bernard Ransome. A number of friends of Mrs. Boss and the hostess have been invited to spend an informal afternoon which promises to be most enjoyable.

NEW WHIST CLUB.

A newly organized whist club, as yet unnamed, met for the second time at the home of Mrs. A. W. Baker this afternoon. The game was much enjoyed, and the players have decided to hold meetings fortnightly. Those who have joined the new club are Mrs. W. E. Smith, Mrs. Frank Shay, Mrs. B. E. White, Mrs. A. W. Baker, Mrs. J. B. Melvin, Mrs. W. Jackson and Mrs. John Ronald.

CARNIVAL DAYS.

All goes merrily out at the Idora Park booths, and each day adds much to the receipts being gathered in by the ladies who have for the time foregone society and given themselves up to labor in sweet charity's name.

At Fabiola yesterday, Mrs. Oscar Fitzalan Long had a very successful day; one pleasant incident of the day was the visit of Mrs. Peard Sather, who bought a Pandora box and paid $50 for it instead of the dime that was asked. The sale of tickets for the automobiles also was encouragingly large, the splendid machines attracting much attention.

Today Mrs. D. Esterbrook had charge and reported a very satisfactory day. Tomorrow Mrs. H. C. Capwell and her corps of assistants will have charge. At the Oakland Club today an energetic group of ladies worked to earn something toward the new club house, the committee was made up as follows: Miss Lucy Cole, chairman; Miss Lucy Kendall, Mrs. D. L. Webster, Mrs. Fred Fenton, Mrs. Walter Stafford, Mrs. G. W. Howison, Mrs. M. L. Woolley, Mrs. S. F. Mikel, Mrs. Ferris Hartman, Mrs. B. N. de Leon, Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Harry Keller, Mrs. Ben Woolner, Mrs. Raymond Kitchener and Mrs. Dunmore.

Tomorrow Mrs. Melvin Tobriner will be hostess.

The Ladies' Relief Society, of which Miss Matilda Brown is president, reports most encouraging success. The West Oakland Home is also attracting a generous share of patronage, under the guidance of Mrs. I. A. Beretta.

The Free Kindergarten booth is also very well managed and very popular. The ladies in charge here are Mrs. E. E. Pugham, Mrs. H. Wadsworth, Mrs. Robert Watt, Mrs. Harry K. Belden, Mrs. E. Bishop, Mrs. W. G. Palmantier, Mrs. J. T. Wright, Mrs. Meek, Mrs. Charles S. Houghton, Mrs. E. B. Stone, Mrs. G. W. Kopp, Mrs. Bruce Hayden and Mrs. Franklin Bangs.

AGAIN IN OAKLAND.

Mrs. L. B. Edox, who for several years was in the millinery business on Broadway, has returned to Oakland, after a long and most pleasant visit at her old home in Salem, Oregon, where she went to place her son in Mount Angel College.

Mrs. Edox has established a pleasant business connection with Abrahamson Brothers of Oakland, and will henceforth make her home in this city.

IN LONDON.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kennedy, with their daughters, the Misses May, Marguerite and Jean Kennedy, are at present in London after having spent two delightful months in traveling through Ireland. Their plans are for a year of sight-seeing, and they may extend it, in case the year is not sufficient time to cover the plans of interest scheduled. They are greatly enjoying their trip.

VAUDEVILLE SHOW.

A vaudeville show has been planned by the guard team of Fruitvale Circle, 685, of the Women of Woodcraft, for Wednesday evening, October 2. The performance will be given at Diamond Hall, Fruitvale, and the rehearsals promise a very merry entertainment. Among those taking part will be Mrs. Hanna Marks, Mrs. Olive Cullen, Mrs. Eva Austin, Mrs. Madge Ferrell, Mrs. J. Martin, Mrs. Edith Bridge, Mrs. G. Coker, Mrs. Carrie Windle, little Ruth Burnham, and Miss Lula Farrer. Delbert L. Holmes.

Melvin L. Homes, Mrs. Jessie M. Wilkison of Oakland Circle. Mrs. Wilkison will sing several numbers and will be accompanied by Mrs. Baker, also of Oakland Circle.

CRAGMONT

THE EYES OF THE PUBLIC HAVE BEEN TURNED TOWARD THAT BEAUTIFUL RESIDENCE PROPERTY SO APPROPRIATELY NAMED CRAGMONT, WHICH HAS JUST BEEN PLACED ON SALE. THE DEMAND FOR LOTS IN CRAGMONT IS INSISTENT, THE PEOPLE APPARENTLY REALIZING THAT THIS IS A CHANCE OF A LIFETIME TO SECURE AN IDEAL HOME SITE AT PRICES AND TERMS SUCH AS HAVE NEVER BEFORE BEEN OFFERED ON HIGH-CLASS PROPERTY OF THIS DESCRIPTION.

OUR OFFICES HAVE NEVER BEEN SO BUSY AS THEY HAVE IN THE LAST WEEK ON ACCOUNT OF THE VAST AMOUNT OF SALES MADE IN CRAGMONT THE BUYING HAS BEEN SO BRISK THAT OVER TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY (250) LOTS HAVE BEEN SOLD, AMOUNTING TO OVER $200,000.

ESPECIALLY SIGNIFICANT IS THE FACT THAT SCORES OF RESIDENTS OF OAKLAND AND BERKELEY, INTIMATELY FAMILIAR WITH THE PROPERTY, HAVE PURCHASED LOTS, THEREBY EXPRESSING THEIR ADMIRATION FOR THE LOCATION AND CONFIDENCE IN THE FUTURE OF THIS, THE MOST MAGNIFICENT OF ALL PROPERTIES.

THIS IS THE MOST CONVINCING AND CONCLUSIVE ARGUMENT WHICH WE COULD OFFER. CRAGMONT SPEAKS FOR ITSELF. IT MUST BE SEEN TO BE UNDERSTOOD AND APPRECIATED, THEREFORE WE WILL NOT ATTEMPT AN EXTENDED DESCRIPTION, BUT WILL CONTENT OURSELVES WITH A FEW GENERAL STATEMENTS.

LOCATION

CRAGMONT LIES ON THE GENTLE SLOPING AND EVER BEAUTIFUL HILLS DIRECTLY ADJOINING THE MOST ARISTOCRATIC DISTRICT OF THE CULTURED AND RAPIDLY GROWING CITY OF BERKELEY. IT IS WITHIN WALKING DISTANCE OF THE STATE UNIVERSITY AND THE FAMOUS GREEK THEATER.

VIEW

THE PICTURESQUE SEVENTY FOOT AUTOMOBILE AND CARRIAGE BOULEVARD FOLLOWING THE CONTOUR OF CRAGMONT'S FAVORED SLOPES, HAS ALREADY BECOME FAMOUS. FROM EVERY FOOT OF THIS SUPERB ROAD THERE IS SPREAD BEFORE THE EYE OF THE ENRaptured SPECTATOR A LANDSCAPE AND MARINE VIEW OF EXCEPTIONAL BEAUTY.

BY TURNING TO THE NORTH AND THEN TO THE SOUTH, WE OBTAIN A MATCHLESS AND UNBROKEN VIEW OF THE SHORES OF SAN FRANCISCO BAY FOR MILES IN EITHER DIRECTION. TO THE EAST OF CRAGMONT ARE THE BEAUTIFUL BERKELEY HILLS, THEIR WOODED SLOPES AND GENTLE CURVES LENDING TO THE EYE AN ENCHANTING EFFECT.

CLIMATE and ELEVATION

CRAGMONT RESTS IN AN AMPHITHEATER, FORMED BY THE HIGH HILLS BY WHICH IT IS PARTLY SURROUNDED, THUS BEING PROTECTED FROM THE COLD NORTH WINDS AND THE HEAVY WINTER STORMS FROM THE SOUTHEAST. THE MILDNESS OF THE AIR AND THE EVENNESS OF THE TEMPERATURE AS COMPARED WITH OTHER LOCATIONS, ADD IN MARKED DEGREE TO ITS DESIRABILITY. IT IS WELL DRAINED OWING TO ITS ELEVATION AND FREE FROM ALL UNHEALTHFUL AND UNPLEASANT CONDITIONS.

TRANSPORTATION

IN ADDITION TO BEING CONVENIENT TO TWO INDEPENDENT CAR LINES, THE KEY ROUTE AND SOUTHERN PACIFIC FERRY SYSTEMS ARE WITHIN LESS THAN TEN MINUTES' DISTANCE FROM CRAGMONT THUS ASSURING AMPLE TRANSPORTATION ADVANTAGES. SAN FRANCISCO CAN BE REACHED IN FORTY-FIVE MINUTES AND THE BUSINESS CENTER OF OAKLAND IN THIRTY MINUTES. A RIGHT OF WAY FOR A CAR LINE THROUGH THE PROPERTY HAS BEEN RESERVED, IT BEING UNDERSTOOD THAT THIS WILL BE BUILT AS SOON AS CONDITIONS WARRANT.

RESTRICTIONS

WISE BUILDING RESTRICTIONS WILL INSURE AND MAINTAIN A HIGH CHARACTER OF IMPROVEMENTS. OUR AIM IN THIS RESPECT IS NOT THAT BUILDINGS SHOULD BE ESPECIALLY COSTLY, BUT THAT THEY SHOULD BE ARTISTIC AND IN KEEPING WITH THE SURROUNDINGS.

WE APPRECIATE THE FACT THAT NOTHING IMPROVES AND INCREASES THE VALUE OF REAL ESTATE MORE THAN EXTENSIVE BUILDING, SO WE ARE DOING EVERYTHING IN OUR POWER TO ENCOURAGE THE BUILDER.

IMPROVEMENTS

PRICES OF LOTS WILL INCLUDE SEWERS, WATER MAINS, MACADAMIZED STREETS AND ON THE BOULEVARDS, CURBS, GUTTERS, AND CEMENT SIDEWALKS, FREE TO THE PURCHASER. OUR PLANS HAVE TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT EVERYTHING WHICH MAY TEND TO THE ULTIMATE BEAUTY, HEALTHFULNESS AND PROTECTION OF

ALL OUR STREETS DESCRIBE GRACEFUL CURVES, AND IN NO CASE IS A RIGHT ANGLE FOUND AT THE INTERSECTING POINTS. THEY FORM PICTURESQUE RIBBONS THROUGH A VISTA OF GREEN FOLIAGE. ON THE PROPERTY ARE MANY BEAUTIFUL OAK TREES WHICH ADD TO ITS ATTRACTIVENESS.

PRICES and TERMS

LOTS RANGE FROM $500 UPWARDS ACCORDING TO THE LOCATION, PAYMENTS, 10% CASH, AND THE BALANCE IN MONTHLY INSTALLMENTS OF 1% OF THE PURCHASE PRICE OF THE LOT—FOR EXAMPLE, AS LITTLE AS $50 DOWN AND $5 PER MONTH SECURES A $500 LOT FOR YOU, AND YOU PAY NO INTEREST OR TAXES FOR 3½ YEARS. The Shadow of a Man

45 per cent of the people you meet on the street are mere shadows of what they should be—they are too thin for their height. They lack in vitality—they are more open to attacks of disease—and they are not attractive, and often less popular, than their heavier friends. If you are too thin it is due to one or more of the following four causes: 1. You cannot digest starch. 2. You cannot digest fat. 3. You do not assimilate what you eat. 4. You have a poor appetite. Peptol, the new food remedy, overcomes the difficulty in each case. It adds flesh at a remarkably rapid rate. This has been proven beyond doubt by eminent physicians, professional men and hundreds of others who have used it. It combines in highly condensed form the very elements that build flesh. It helps to digest other foods. It creates appetite. Peptol will increase your weight in 30 days. This we absolutely guarantee. If it does not we will refund your money without question. Ask your druggist for a free booklet. "Why People are Thin." Let it prove its worth. Start today using

WILSON SHAMELESSLY SAYS THAT HE TOOK ALL IN SIGHT

Boodling Supervisor, Now Railroad Commissioner, Brazenly Tells His Story of Grafting and Crime.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Few cases in the history of criminal jurisprudence can equal the brazen testimony given in yesterday's session of the Ford case by former supervisor, confessed grafter and present State railroad commissioner, Andrew L. Wilson. That he counseled the members of the board to be loyal to Rufus, that Rufus ordered him to report any grafting on the part of the supervisors, if city funds were concerned, and that his loyalty to the "administration" consisted in grabbing everything which was offered, were a few of the points testified to by the man now holding the position of State railroad commissioner. When asked if he had been requested to resign his present office Wilson boldly declared that there was no reason why he should resign and at once took on an air of injured innocence which dumfounded not only the spectators but the prosecution as well as the defense.

Although the air of martyrdom and injured innocence exhibited by the man, formerly a washed grafter, has become familiar to the spectators, the brazenness of Wilson was unequalled. He denied being Gallagher's lieutenant in the negotiations for the fixing of other supervisors, although he admitted giving the "funds" to the other hoodlums. Even the prosecutors could scarcely veil the contempt they felt for the boodler.

MAMLOOK SCARED.

The afternoon session ended with ex-Supervisor Max Mamlook on the stand. He was badly twisted up by Rogers and was thoroughly frightened before court adjourned.

Dr. Boxton, mayor of a week under the reign of the "big stick," was on the stand until well into the afternoon. Rogers sought to find out what had become of the confession that the former supervisor had detected, but Boxton did not know. Rogers questioned him regarding a reported plan of Randolph Spreckels to put a conduit system on Bush street which was later to be taken over by Mullally.

"I never heard of it," said the witness. "Subsequently they demanded your resignation, didn't they?" asked Rogers. "Well, they didn't exactly demand it, but I had to resign to accept the position as mayor," said Boxton.

"How long did you hold it?"

"Only about a week, and there was a titter throughout the court room.

Jokers asked Boxton if he had testified in the Glass case that he had been told to deny that he had received money in Rogers' case or other.

Heeny objected and the objection was sustained.

Rogers then asked the witness if it was a fact that he had been so instructed and Boxton replied that he had been told that some time or other.

NEVER TALKED TO FORD.

"Did you talk with Ford, Mullally, Calhoun or Abbott about the trolley?" asked Rogers.

"No."

A communication was handed to the witness.

"Do you remember that it was presented to the board?"

"I do. I think it was read at the time," he replied.

"You had been at the car barns?"

"I visited Fillmore and Turk street ones."

"What was the occasion?"

"They were serving lunch and I went there to get lunch."

"They were serving many people there then?"

"They were."

"Who brought you the money after the ordinance passed?"

"Gallagher. He attended to all such matters."

"You recall dining at Roy's restaurant with two other persons and Burns?"

"I wouldn't know Burns at that time. I had many dinners and lunches there."

"Are you sure he was not talking to you?" asked Rogers.

"He may have been."

On re-direct, Heeny asked:

"You saw that Burns may have been there. Was he really there?"

"I don't know."

"Do you know Mr. Burns?"

"I did not at that time. Several people spoke to those who were at the table. I don't know who they were."

"It is just as likely that Rogers was there as that Burns was there, isn't it, Doctor?"

"I think so."

"What is it you say that Mr. Burns told you to deny?"

BURNS ORDERED SILENCE.

"It was something which I think it was desired to keep out of the papers at the time."

"Didn't Burns tell you to tell the reporters that there was nothing in the story that Longenecker had been trapped at Roy's house?"

"I think it was."

"Did Mr. Burns ever tell you to testify to anything that was untrue?"

"He did not."

Questioned by Heeny on re-direct examination as to how he met Burns and Heeny and how he came to make this confession, Boxton retold his story of being trapped.

"Was there any agreement that you were to be questioned on five matters only?"

"I don't remember."

"Were you not asked to tell about all the various matters in which you had received money while on the board?"

Heeny questioned.

"I don't remember," said Boxton, "but I may have been."

"Was this immunity that was promised you given to you under any agreement that you were to remain in office as supervisor?" Heeny asked.

"No, I didn't understand it that way. I understood that the board was left because it would have been impossible to get a better one," and a titter went through the court room.

In reply to Heeny's questions Boxton reiterated his statement that Burns had told him to make out an affidavit denying his guilt if pressed by the newspaper men.

But didn't you understand Mr. Burns to say that if the newspaper men bothered you too much about your confession to bluff them off by saying that you would make out an affidavit denying it?"

"No, sir; he never said anything like that," replied the boodler.

"Well, he never asked you to do anything wrong?" questioned Heeny.

"Well, I had to sign that affidavit," said Boxton, showing a certain bitterness and pointing to the affidavit in which he swore he was innocent of any wrong doing.

"Well, Burns didn't tell you to sign it, did he?"

"No, but Mr. Keen, representing the administration, did," quickly rejoined the witness.

Heeny was taken aback, but quickly passed to other questions relating to the trolley bribe.

Boxton was then excused.

FURY ON STAND.

Ex-Supervisor John J. Furey was next sworn and questioned by Heeny. He had been here twenty years and is now in the saloon business. Before that he was in the fur business on Powell street. He was elected a member of the board of supervisors in 1906 and retired in January, 1907.

"When did you first hear that the United Railroads wanted an overhead trolley?" Heeny asked.

"A short time after the fire," said Furey.

"Did you speak to you about it?"

"J. L. Gallagher."

"What did he say?"

"He said the Market street railway was to get a franchise."

"Did he also tell you that?"

"I don't remember."

"When next?"

"A few days later."

"Where?"

"In Mowry's hall."

"What was said?"

"Oh, I can't recall. He said there would be $8000 or $10,000 in it."

"What did you say?"

"I said that that was all right so far as I was concerned."

"Did you vote for the ordinance?"

"Yes."

"That was on the first passage?"

"Did you have any other talk with Gallagher?"

"What did he say?"

"He said it came down to $4000."

"Was that before the second or final passage of the ordinance?"

"It was."

VOTED FOR ORDINANCE.

"Did you finally vote for the ordinance?"

"I did."

"Did you receive any money?"

"Yes, sir."

"How much?"

"Two thousand dollars."

"In what kind of money?"

"Currency."

"In what denominations?"

"Generally small."

"Was there any other payment?"

"Yes."

"When?"

"Some time later."

"How much was in that?"

"Two thousand dollars."

"In what denominations?"

"Large bills."

"Do you know T. L. Ford?"

"I met him once in Mowry's hall."

"Did you meet Mr. Abbott?"

"No."

"Did Mr. Burns ever tell you to testify to anything that was untrue?"

ONLY ONE MORE DAY OF THE SPECIAL VOTE OFFER REMAINS

HELP FRIENDS BEFORE TOO LATE

Bring in Subscriptions by Saturday Night.

Only one more day of the double vote offer remains. Every possible subscription should be secured before Saturday night in order to obtain the benefit of this special offer of double the usual number of votes. Two thousand votes are worth securing, as new year's subscriptions can be obtained with little effort.

START NOW. Get your subscriptions now, and bring them to the office before the close of the two for one offer. After the close of this special offer only the regular number of votes will be issued, and no other special offer will be made at any time during the contest.

HELP YOUR FRIENDS. If you have paid a year's subscription for some friend, do so now and obtain the benefit of double the regular number of votes. Remember, at no other time during the contest will you have an opportunity to get more than the regular number of votes.

MAIL YOUR CHECK. If it is not convenient to bring your subscription to the office, mail it. Double the usual number of votes will be issued on all subscriptions that bear the postmark of Saturday, September 28. Be sure to mail your check by Saturday so that you will secure 2000 votes instead of 1000 for a year's subscription.

Richmond has produced a candidate who wants the Richmond lot that is to be given to the most popular police officer outside of Alameda county. The contestant is Bert Gregory, who is well known and favorably known not only in Contra Costa county, but in many parts of the State. Gregory has taken a prominent part in State politics, and was an official at the State Industrial Home for some time. He is also an active member of the Eagles, and his friends are already at work in his behalf, and the vote he has to his credit shows that he will be a formidable competitor.

MISS KATHRYN McMANUS. Valleys is looking for its charming girls, and Miss Kathryn McManus is naturally one of the most popular young ladies there. Her friends have sent in her name as a candidate for the $500 prize that is to be awarded to the girl who receives the most votes. She has already received for her, and the promise is made that many more will be sent in for her.

J. J. OVERTON. The building lot that was given in the last contest to the union man was won by a member of the Carpenters' Union, J. E. Bray, securing the valuable lot. J. J. Overton, who is a member of Carpenters' Union, No. 36, is making a fine race for the $1000 lot to be given in this contest, and expects to be in the lead at the close of the contest. He has been a member of the Carpenters' Union for twenty-six years and was treasurer for four years. A more popular union man would be hard to find.

ALAMEDA PRIZE WITHDRAWN. Owing to the lack of interest displayed by the Alameda postoffice employees and police officers, the prizes, consisting of a $500 building lot and a trip to Los Angeles, are withdrawn.

COUPONS IN PACKAGES. The vote coupons must be tied in packages or placed in envelopes. It is impossible to count thousands of coupons dropped loosely in the box.

CLASSIFIED AD COUPONS. An innovation in voting contests is the issuing of votes on classified advertisements. A coupon book containing coupons to the value of $2.50 is sold for 40 cents. It is a saving of 50 cents for each dollar, and will prove a great investment for those who advertise. Classified advertisements are such as "Help Wanted," "For Sale," "Rooms to Rent," etc. These classified advertisement coupons should be used at the time the books are bought, or at a later date, as desired by the purchasers.

MANNER OF VOTING. A coupon good for one vote will be published in each issue of THE TRIBUNE until the end of the contest. This coupon, if clipped and sent to the Contest Manager, THE TRIBUNE, will entitle the voter to one vote for the contestant named therein.

There is another and better way of securing votes and that is in subscriptions. During Bargain Week votes will be given on all paid-in-advance subscriptions as follows:

Three months, $1.95 . . . 200 extra votes
Six months, $3.90 . . . 400 extra votes
One year, $7.90 . . . 800 extra votes
Two years, $15.80 . . . 1600 extra votes
Three years, $23.70 . . . 2400 extra votes

During Bargain Week 600 votes are also issued on a classified advertisement coupon book, which sells for only $2.50, but sells for only $2.

This is all she remembered until she found herself lying prone upon the ground unable to move hand or foot but with an insatiable thirst which made her cry and cry again for water.

IN SERIOUS CONDITION The woman fell on her head inflicting a deep gash on the right side and lay in the position in which she fell until she was discovered this morning. The wound in her face was in a horrible condition and her body where it rested against the earth is blue.

WRITES ABOUT CITY'S GROWTH

Article in Sunset Magazine Tells of Oakland's Great Prosperity.

In the Oakland edition of the October "Sunset" magazine appears an article on "Oakland's Business Growth," by Paul Goldsmith, the well-known newspaper man. After telling of the sudden trade boom due to the San Francisco fire, Goldsmith continues:
"There are several barometers that go to test the growth and prosperity of a city. One of these, and the one most quoted and really least reliable, is the clearing house. Oakland has only had a clearing house for little more than a year, and as the old steamer day was continued in San Francisco to the detriment of its clearing, so Oakland still continues to settle in cash and collect checks directly at the banks upon the day drawn, which reduces the total of its clearing. Still it runs from two and one-half million a week, placing it on an equality with such cities as Rochester, N. Y.; Hartford, Conn.; and Memphis, Tenn."
These figures are then given:
Assessed valuation of Oakland: 1903-1906, $64,000,000; 1906-1907, $101,000,000; increased in one year, $37,000,000.
Assessed valuation of Alameda county: 1903-1906, $120,857,931; 1906-1907, $145,209,120; increased in one year, $24,351,189.
Building permits, city of Oakland: 1906-1907, number 3105, value $4,446,692.95; 1906-1907, number 5493, value $9,321,351.20; increase in one year, number 2388, value increased, $5,374,658.25.
CITY'S GREAT GROWTH.
Population: Census report, 1900, 66,960; estimate, July 1, 1907, from postoffice, city directory, schools and registration, 235,000.
Realty sales in 1906 aggregated $50,000,000; estimated from County Recorder's records.
Manufactures, taken from County Statistician's report, amounted to $18,284,197 in 1905, and in 1906 had increased to $28,231,028.
Postoffice receipts: 1905, $165,624,371; 1906, $258,858,157; 1907, $453,350,001.
Continuing, Goldsmith writes:
"And it can be added that among fourteen deposits with deposits amounting to over $50,000,000 there has never been a bank failure. In two years the travel on the lines of the Southern Pacific, the Key Route and the Oakland Traction Company has doubled."
TRADE INCREASES.
These are the figures of the story. Large San Francisco interests are establishing branch stores, such as H. J. Brothers, S. N. Wood & Co., the John Breuner Company, Rosenthal & Co., Goldberg, Bowen & Co., while others are looking for sites. But with all this competition the local stores are increasing in number. The business of the city is heavier than that of May, 1906, immediately following the fire, so it is with T. C. Pennoyer, who are erecting a new $200,000 store. The new Orpheum Theater is nearly completed and new warehouses and factories are lining the water front.
"But even with a sound business that has quadrupled and a population that has more than doubled it is the home that Oakland has always looked for and always will. It will always be the City Beautiful."

WILL NOT BUY SPRING VALLEY

Supervisors Turn Down Offer of Company for Sale of Plant.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—At a meeting of the public utilities committee of the board of supervisors yesterday it was decided to recommend to the board that the petition of the Spring Valley Water Company for the sale of its plant at $28,000,000 be denied.
"While there are other objections to the proposition into which we will go later," said Chairman D'Amico, "it is a simple matter of arithmetic to show that the matter of the money needed to carry out the suggested plan would render it virtually impossible. Under the law which limits the issuance of bonds to a maximum allowance of 15 per cent upon the total assessed valuation of the city property we cannot issue more than $33,000,000 worth."
"Already the issue of $17,000,000 of bonds has been made or authorized. Take that amount away from the $33,000,000, also the $28,000,000 required for the proposed purchase of Spring Valley property, and we have left only $18,000,000 to cover the cost of necessary street and sewer rehabilitation, for the creation of the auxiliary fire protection system, and the acquisition of the Sierra water supply. In other words, this last and greatest of the pending city improvement would be made impossible."
Chairman D'Amico and his colleagues of the public utilities committee will prepare a formal report against the proposed purchase of the Spring Valley properties, which will be presented to the board of supervisors at Monday's meeting.

THROWN FROM BICYCLE OVER EMBANKMENT

William Perry, a cement worker, was taken to the emergency hospital at 8 o'clock last evening, suffering from a severe fall from a bicycle. He was riding near a steep bank at Forty-seventh and Market streets when he struck a stone in the pathway and was precipitated to the bottom of the embankment. Examination of the injured man disclosed two broken ribs, a severe cut above the left eye and two contusions on the left cheek. He was treated by the physicians in attendance and later was placed in a cot at the hospital, from which he will be removed to his home at 952 Chestnut street this evening. His injuries are not regarded as serious.

FOREST FIRE STARTED

SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 27.—A forest fire was started early last night in the Cold Springs canyon by the burning of a gasoline stove in the residence of Mrs.

M. M. Childs, some five miles east of this city. The fire swept up the canyon, burning several small houses and about a couple of square miles of mountain territory. The whole available force of rangers and over a hundred helpers are fighting the flames, which at present are gaining on the men. Several handsome Montecito residences are in the path of the flames unless the wind changes. The Hot Springs resort in the next canyon is also in danger.

Barley, Bread and Beer

These three words are derived from the same Anglo Saxon root—brewan.

All three are foods. Barley, a grain that makes both bread and beer. Bread, a solid food. Beer, a liquid food.

In making bread, flour and yeast are used; in making beer, barley-malt, hops and yeast are used. The same principle is in each—both are wholesome foods.

In Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer the Pabst Eight-Day Malting Process matures the malt slowly and uniformly, thus transforming every particle of nutriment in the barley into perfect food substances.

To these are added the invigorating properties of the choicest hops, by the Pabst brewing process, which insures absolute purity.

Your system requires a liquid. Why not use one that is both food and drink—

Pabst Blue Ribbon

The Beer of Quality

The special value of Pabst Blue Ribbon at meals is that it encourages the fluids of the stomach to render action—thus aiding you to get the fullest nourishment from your food.

You can prove the value of Pabst Blue Ribbon as a food, by ordering a case today for home use.

BEER-DRIVERS' UNION TO BE HOST AT GRAND BALL

All Arrangements Completed for Dance

F. ROTHCHILD.

H. GREWE.

The ball to be given tomorrow night at Germania Hall by the Beer Drivers' Union of Oakland, a newly organized branch of the International Union of United Brewery Workers, has been carefully prepared, according to the statements of the committee on entertainment.

Rothchild is president and Grewe secretary of the union. The same air of good feeling and jollity as has characterized all the past social functions given by the branches of this organization will be insisted upon. A pleasant time is assured to all lovers of the waltz and the two-step.

This new addition to the international union was organized last January with a membership of forty-six, and now has to its credit ninety-five members. The friendly relations established between them and their employers has grown with their knowledge of each other.

Invitations to the dance are extended to all members of the association. A good time is guaranteed.

The Harbor League will hold a public meeting tonight in the rooms of the Merchants' Exchange, and many speakers of note will boost the water front proposition. The league is accomplishing much toward arousing public spirit in the matter of making Oakland a great support and much free literature upon the subject is being sent out by the organization.

The league desires to create a healthy public sentiment to the end that wharves, docks, terminals, warehouses and shipping will be had for Oakland to make its future great and lasting, not alone for Oakland, but for Alameda County and the State of California.

S.S.S. CURES CATARRH

Catarrh is not merely a disease of the mucous membranes and inner linings of the body as some of the symptoms would seem to indicate; it is a deep-seated blood disease, in which the entire circulation and the greater part of the system are involved. Like all other blood diseases, Catarrh comes from poisons and impurities accumulating in the circulation which irritate and inflame the tissues and mucous surfaces, and then the unpleasant symptoms of the disease are manifested. There is a ringing noise in the ears, a thin, watery discharge from the nostrils, filthy matter drops back into the throat, the breath has an offensive odor, and many other annoying and unpleasant symptoms are characteristic of the trouble. Sprays, washes, inhalations, etc., cannot reach the blood, and are therefore valuable only for the temporary relief they afford. To cure Catarrh the blood must be purified. Nothing equals S. S. S. for this purpose; it goes down into the circulation, removes the catarrhal matter, purifies the blood and makes a lasting cure. When S. S. S. has removed the cause, the blood being pure and healthy nourishes the membranes and tissues instead of irritating them with noxious matter, and the symptoms all pass away. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 26. — The Union Labor party in convention assembled last night endorsed the following candidates for the coming municipal elections: For Mayor, P. H. are two of the most important things in the grocery business.

In this age of substitution and adulteration a person needs to have as much confidence in the grocer as in the doctor.

Busselle is known as the "Grocery Doctor" for his nomination.

"If this convention nominates that man for mayor, I want to say that I and the other eleven delegates from this district will not only vote against him, but will vote against him on November 5, and will beat him. And I will nominate him brother, Tyelmore, for Superior, and I will beat you still worse. McCarthy represents Calhoun and corporate interests and is the enemy of the people."

BEEF PRICES ARE NOW WORRYING HOUSEKEEPERS

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Housekeepers throughout this city are complaining over an increase in the price of beef and beef products. There has been an increase in the cost to the retailer of one cent a pound. It is understood among the retail dealers that the price will go up within the next month half a cent if not a cent more. The wholesalers give many reasons for the increase in prices. One of the principal ones is that the farmers have had to fatten their cattle on grain instead of grass as usual at this time of the year, owing to the long drought last summer. On the other hand, it is contended in some quarters that the price of beef has been raised by the big Western packers because of the renewed agitation of the question of government prosecution of big corporations. The prices for lamb, veal and mutton are practically stationary and are no higher than usual at this season of the year.

PLAGUE SPREAD BY RATS ONLY, SAYS U. S. EXPERT

Officials of Alameda County Cities to Take Vigorous Action to Prevent Disease
Crossing Bay.

Called together at the request of Mayor Mott, the Health Boards of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda met yesterday in the executive office to confer with Dr. Rupert Blue, chief surgeon of the Pacific division of the United States hospital service, in regard to measures to be taken to prevent the spread of the bubonic plague to this side of the bay.

Two days ago Mayor Mott had a conference with Dr. N. K. Foster, of the city health board, and it was decided to confer with Dr. Blue to see if the city was doing everything possible to prevent an epidemic. The result of the meeting was that Mayor Mott has sent a telegram to Surgeon General Wyman at Washington asking that a member of the Marine Hospital Service familiar with plague conditions be detailed to take charge of affairs on this side of the bay.

ALL TOWNS TO JOIN.
Dr. Blue made some valuable suggestions and the several boards unanimously agreed to adopt them. He said that in his opinion the most important thing to do was to get the co-operation of the health departments of all the adjoining towns, as stringent measures in Oakland would be of no avail if other towns took no precautions and infected rats could cross the border. Another thing, he said, that was most important of all, was to have some head man make every one act in concert, and he suggested the appointment of a government man who would supervise sanitary inspectors, who, in their turn, would be responsible for their respective districts.

"Dollars don't count," he stated. "You are face to face with a serious situation, and while there may not be any cases in Oakland yet, no expense must be spared and no effort relaxed to prevent the contagion from entering."

RATS CAUSE SPREAD.
"I cannot too strongly impress on you the idea that the infection is spread solely by rats. People do not realize this and are not as zealous in killing or capturing them as they should be. Stables and warehouses should be cleaned out either by killing or poisoning. Bread covered with phosphorus should be placed in the sewers and around wharves."

"The State government has realized the seriousness of the matter and last Thursday passed a regulation that all vessels plying on the bay must have certificates from the State Board of Health stating that they have been thoroughly fumigated and are free from rats. These certificates must be renewed every fourteen days. With the proper measures on your water front the influx of rats will be stopped and then you can go to work on what you have already on hand."

RAT PROOF CELLARS.
"I would further suggest that you allow no new buildings erected unless they have rat-proof cellars. This is most important."
Continuing, Dr. Blue said that inoculation by the use of "erysine" virus had been tried very successfully in San Francisco and that the authorities were holding their own in the combat with the disease. In about 40 per cent of the cases has death occurred. He said further that in a pure case of the bubonic plague death does not usually occur. It only proves fatal in cases accompanied by "septicemia," or blood poisoning and pneumonia.

Mayor Mott said that he believed that the extermination of rats was a county matter, and would take it up with the county supervisors, whom he believed would lend their assistance.

The boards will meet again this evening and formulate plans for co-operation with the United States government hospital surgeon when he arrives.
